

Project Summary

Emergency Management Disability Awareness Training: Contract with Niagara University to offer Emergency Management Disability Awareness Training throughout Missouri. This project develops advisory groups to help others. These groups include emergency management and disability stakeholders to improve emergency response and recovery in Missouri.